Hon. Julian Bond
House of Representatives
Atlanta, Georgia

Dear Rep. Bond:

I am writing for Dr. Kenneth B. Clark. MARC is preparing a bibliography on black separatism in America, and the climate which gave rise to it.

Would you have written any speeches or articles which could be included? We would like to receive a copy of anything which you think might be relevant. If you do not have distributable copies, would you be able to give citations so that we can locate them at a larger library?

Our immediate concern is the completion of this bibliography. However, as a general policy, MARC would like to receive copies of press releases, speeches, or articles which you distribute to interested organizations.

Any mailings should be addressed to the MARC library. I look forward to hearing from you as soon as possible.

Yours,

Susan Phillis

Dear George,

Thanks for the Maker's Mark. It compares favorably but not competitively with the product from the Tennessee hills.

Sincerely,

Dear Ms. Forniss,

I am sorry I missed the December 16 opening of the building. I was out of the country until nearly Christmas Day. I hope I have the chance to come back to Birmingham some time soon, and that we can get together then.

Sincerely,

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
State Capital Building
Atlanta, Georgia

Dear Representative Bond:

The newly remodelled Forniss Building is one of the first minority-owned structures to receive a contract to house a federally-funded program. The United States Department of Commerce, Office of Minority Business Enterprise, has funded the Magic City Economic Development Association (MCEDA) of Birmingham which is housed on the top floor of The Forniss Building.

My family and I would be deeply honored if you would consent to bring greetings at our dedication service on Sunday, December 16, 1973 at 4:00 p.m. at the Fourth Avenue Branch Y.M.C.A., followed by Open House at our building.

We are also hosting an informal reception on Saturday, December 15, 1973 at 8:00 p.m. at Fornwood (the M. L. Forniss residence), and would be pleased if you would attend.

Should you be able to attend, please forward a copy of your standard press release, along with your photograph as soon as possible.

Sincerely,

Laurie Forniss

Dear Joe,

My correct mailing address is shown here, hat 361 Westview Drive.

I would like to have my entire district mailing list of several thousand names added to the Georgia Democrats list. Is that possible?

Dear Mr. Bond:-

We are in the process of bringing our files up to date and need your assistance.

Do we have your correct mailing address?

Do you know of any one that should be on our rolls?
If so, please let us have the names and address.

We will soon be writing you about a meeting of the State Executive Committee. This will be in January in Atlanta. Also later on we will again write you our plans for the annual Jefferson-Jackson Day dinner which promises to be another great affair. Tentative date is February 18th.

Drop by to see us some time. The Party needs the counsel of all Georgia Democrats.

I am in the office for a few weeks trying to help our new Director. Am typing this myself so please forgive the errors.

Best regards to you.

Sincerely,

Joe T. Andrews.

Dear Julian,

In earlier letters, I sought your support for the Southern Elections Fund, the Voter Education Project, and in the accompanying letter, for the Institute for Southern Studies. Today, I face a personal financial crisis and must, reluctantly, write on behalf of my own cause.

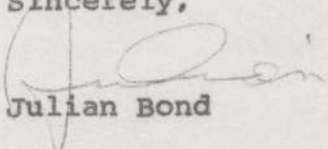

As I mentioned when we were last together, I derive 90% of my income from public speaking. Since 1970, I have combined speaking tours with organizing and fundraising activities, in increasing amounts, for those groups I support. Consequently, my own lecture contracts have suffered, and my personal income has declined this year, until today I am in a bad situation.

I own no stocks or bonds; I have no interest in commercial or business enterprise; my only assured annual income, the legislative salary, is $7200. I cannot contract for lectures away from Atlanta until the General Assembly adjourns. That means, quite simply, that I have no source of income until after March 15.

So, I face the prospect of being unable to pay taxes due January 15, and the necessity of closing my office. That closing may ultimately be more damaging to me, since a shutdown means the loss of a continuing base of operations which secures lecture contracts for the year. It means, additionally, that I will be unable to provide legislative and casework services to constituents, and that I must discontinue support of the several national organizations with whom I am involved.

In the past five years, I have raised millions of dollars directly or through the use of my name for groups I support. Yet, for my own cause, I cannot even ask for a loan, for I have little prospect of repayment before the end of the year. If you can assist me in any way, I will be grateful.

Sincerely,

Julian Bond

p.s. Happy New Year to you and to Barbara.
